My Dear Brother

Your letter

by the Boat & one by Mail I hope have reached you, please send all word to Mrs. Lark to me or bring when you come but prefer you sending by mail as I am anxious about them Mr. Devillon has sold his Bark very well, 20. per Cent, & says he is going to try & buy some more now, I think I would get hands I work it my self he will try & get all he can out of you, we are all well. Come soon Ma sends love to you & all. I am I mean. Write soon

My Dear Brother -

Your welcome epistle reach me safely & in due time; we were much delighted to hear from you & all. I learn you all were well, and that Mrs Davillon was recovering may she continue to improve, is my prayer, for a child without a mother must be sad bereaved.

I know what it is to have no father or husband & the loss of my only son - This leaves us all well, Mother an Kle is nearly well & she is quite well she is well & happy as a buck -

I received your message in regard to coming home, she said I will not go home Aunt Lizzie cant I stay, I'll be a good girl every time she is naughty we tell her, we are going to send her home & then she puts her pique in. I'll not do so any more. I fully expected to visit you this month or at any rate the first of May but Mrs. Dean's continues to be so better & I cant leave any one sick in my house especially a friend & ^{dear} Prof Smith think an operation must be performed, in order to keep his bowels open to prolong life, the Cancer cant be touched so all of his sig of his Physicians say nothing can be done, no more as the Bowells close he must die. I am truly sorry for him he is truly the greatest sufferer I ever saw - Jessie says she will visit some time next week to you as she has 4 holidays. Maggie sends love to Ma, & a kiss to little Bother, says, come & see her but she cant come home, no indeed.

Brother. Jennie. Amanda, with Mr Dear joins me in love to you & Mollie Kiss the Baby for us all. I write soon. As often as you can, do not be uneasy about Maggie she is well cared for - she will come home time enough she says to play in the seat & make Mollie whip her - Excuse I write Love to all who may inquire for me. I remain as ever your fond sister - till death.

N.B.

In regard to my Bond against Paget's which I have put in your hands for collection, By the Land I use my Bond in paying for the Land - & you can pay me the amount as soon as you can make the money - I will wait on you, for this I know you will pay me soon as you can I have nothing to lose. I have lost over $5,00 in the last 3 years - in my business -

I hope you have taken the advantage of the Law in regard to the Land on which live Mrs J. has treated Mother & you badly I think & I would give her some trouble although I confess I am given you bad advice as a Christian, return good for evil, but we cant always do it.

Write from Dod Bay - Kind regards to Mr B. Cook & Maggie and love to Mr Cook - Hoping Mr Ben Bowe may hand in some time - he does not stop with me Sant Claer Hotel is his stopping place

Dear friends

I hope you will not think it presumptuous in me, writing a letter of sympathy, to you, for I am sure there is not one of your friends that sympathizes more deeply with you all in your sad affliction than I do, or has it struck a ~~severer~~ ~~blow~~ ~~to~~ ~~our~~ ~~heart~~ ~~than~~ ~~mine~~ ~~for~~ ~~our~~ ~~most~~ ~~solemn~~ ~~vows~~ ~~were~~ ~~registered~~ ~~in~~ ~~Heaven~~ though the mysterious hand of Providence had cruelly separated us, I dare not wear out mourning, yet my heart is deeply drafed, It was God that afflicted us so deeply & to him we will have to look for consolation. It was for some great good he was taken no doubt, though we can not fathom the inscrutable ways of the great (I am) perhaps it is a warning to you, as you are living a stranger to Christ, O! if we only had the consolation to know he was prepared, but he neglected so many golden opportunities, & was cut off so suddenly, though I hope God in his mercy pardoned his sins.

Jimmie remember that God chasteneth those those he loves, & let us meekly say thy will be done, your dear brother has only preceded you a little while, for the allotted time of man is short, if he lives to his full extent.

~~I am sure you have never met the woman to whom I am alluding in my letter.~~ solation, in her wounded heart, but she knows to whom to appeal in this her saddened hour, one who is ever ready to bear our troubles so many of my friends are passing away, that the world has no charms for me, or at least very few, May God deal mercifully with you & yours & bless my love to Mollie, & your ma, Miss little Maggie, for me, you must not idolize her, God is a jealous God, & might take her from you Good by your more than friend Cassie,

My Dear Uncle

How shall I commence or what shall I say, for really I have procrastinated so long that I am heartily ashamed of my self and hardly know what excuse to make, the first I will bring forward, is that I have been studying very hard for an examination and have had but little time, so far so good, but since that time I will have to acknowledge that I have been very remiss in my duty as a correspondent for which I can only atone by promising to do better in future. The Small pox has been very thick here and is now, but the Dr says the warm weather will be a sudden death to it. I sincerely hope it may. I have been vaccinated four times but it has not taken yet. Mrs. Amanda and my self are going to try it again this morning. Gran Ma says she will be down, the last of May or first of June. she says you must kiss little Maggie a dozen times ^{here} for I would love dearly, to hear her say no she says it so sweetly. Uncle J do bring her up in the paths of wisdom and knowledge. that is the only way is, which a child should be brought up; I should love to see her a highly educated ^{lady}, it is all you can give her that is of any value it is ^{more} than precious stones, it is something no one can take away. that is the doctrine my Darling brother used to preach, to Sister I hope all the education, you can get and, study all, you can and read important books, was not that good advice. I have taken it and have found out, what he said was true, I must now close M^{rs}. Gran M^{rs}. and Amanda join me in love, to Aunt Mollie Maggie and you remember us kindly to Mr. Cook, good by from your loving niece

Jennie Dunn
P.S. Excuse S^{ty}

My Dear Brother

As Jennie writes I conclude to put in a postscript. I guess Jennie has given you all the news. Mr. E. Seaw will go down this evening & if Mr.
Pozette can pay my bond off I will be under many obligations to him & you for attending - I send by bearer let no one see & know you send this - enclosed in a letter, I hope you may get it for me - Mother will be down about the first of June - we are enveloped in Small Pox. I trust in the blessed Saviour that he may keep it from us - This leaves us all well & hope it may find you & your little family the same I am just at this time full of vice boards - hope the Lord my pros-per one in this life & give me an admittance in the one to come is my prayer - I want to be able to meet the dear one's gone & I hope you may give this & though I think you ought to. Excuse & write down love to Mother a kiss to dear little Maggie good by from your loving sister M. E. Linn Mother sends much love to you & all
